INDEX TO VOLUME XXIX.

A Boy Hero—D. H. Muloch, 18.
Advice to Parents, 393.
Æsthetics in the School-Room—M. B. Archer, 122.
Art Education in England, 392.
Art of Questioning: From Plato's Dialogues, 201.
Art of Teaching: Some Things Overlooked, 320.
Asking Questions—Geo. P. Hays, 414.
Athenian Education—H. H. Harris, 497.
Boys: How to Manage Them—J. S. Kennard, 164.
British Common Schools, 420.
Character Building, 448.
Child Education—the Kindergarten: Work of Frederick Frœbel, 359.
Chinese Boys in America: Project of Yung Wing, 375.
Chinese System of Examinations—D. Murray, 455.
Code of Honor in Schools, 241.
Co-Education at Michigan University, 281.
Comets and Meteors—W. W. Griest, 268.
Comic in Teaching, Office of—John S. Stahr, 279.
Common Schools Increase Wealth, 32.
Compulsory Education, 422.
County Institutes—S. H. Prather, 129.
County Superintendency, 433.
Cultivate Observation, 17.
Curiosities of Words: Paradoxical Language, 194.
Description of a Principal—Gail Hamilton, 20.
Dictionary, The New—R. K. Buehrle, 483.
Drawing in Ungraded Schools, 487.
Dull Pupils, 381.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT—July—Programme of State Association, 24. Pensions to Teachers, 28. "Permanent" Teachers in Allegheny County, 28. Progress in Shenandoah, 29. Swiss Teachers' Association, 30. Public Schools, 31. Common Schools Increase Wealth, 32. Schools of the Capital, 32. Our Ungraded Schools, 33. Light from the Kindergarten, 34. August—Superficial Training, 70. Relation of Public Schools to Community, 71. Teachers' Convention in Belgium, 71. Æsthetics in our Primary Schools, 72. Education Abroad: Netherlands, Russia, Belgium, Italy, Germany, 73. Education for the Colored People of the South, 74. Schools for Girls in Paris, 74. Need of Higher Education, 75. Normal School Examinations: List of Questions at Millersville, 77. History of Sunday-Schools, 79. In Memoriam: J. W. Shoemaker, 79. October—Editorial Notes, 169. Sketch of Governor Bigler, 171. Supt. Luckey Talking to Teachers, 172. Normal School Examinations, 173. Notes of Normal Schools, 174. Course of Study for Ungraded Schools of Chester County, 175. Food for Thought, 177. New High School Building at Norristown, 178. Obituary: Prof. S. S. Haldeman, 184. November—Editorial Notes, 209. Supervision in Philadelphia, 212. The "Quincy Method," 213. Conducting Institutes, 214. Lectures on Science at the Institutes, 215. Normal School Examinations: Prof. Maris Explains, 215. Technical Education in Common Schools, 217. Obituary: Daniel S. Burns, 223. December—Cases for Object Lesson Materials, Miss Gladstone a Teacher, 236. Text-Books at Cost of District, 237. Knowledge Connected with Life, 237. Education in Russia, 238. Founder's Day at Lehigh University, 238. Wise Indian Policy, 238. Women as School Directors, 238. Secret of Frederick Frœbel, 239. Star Study, 239. Sewing in the Boston Schools; Formal Statement, Mr. Swan's Letter, Work Done, 240. Code of Honor in Schools: Prize Essay, 241. Take a Journal of Education: "A True Story," 242 Common School Law: Recollections of E. F. Pennypacker, 243. Compulsory Education in Buffalo, 245. Kindergarten, 245. Normal Examinations Again, 246. Teachers' Institutes in France, 247. January—Annual Report, 285. National Association at Atlanta, 285. Spelling, 286. Use and Abuse of Object Lessons, 287. Qualifications of Teachers, 287. Scientific Teaching, 288. The Tests Applied: Superintendents at Work, 289. Indian Names in Pennsylvania, 289. Education in Virginia: Original Plan of Jefferson, 290. President's Message on Education, 291. New National Museum, 292. Pardee Hall, 292. Allegheny City, 293. Women to the Front, 294. Newspaper in School, 295. February—Pedagogical Libraries, 324. Pestalozzi, 324. Training Schools in Russia, 325. Necessity for Normal Schools, 325. More Newspaper in School: Letter from Prof. Anderson, 326. How to Succeed, 327. Kindergartens and Normal Schools, 328. National School Bill, 328. School Inspectors in England, 329. Objections to Public Schools, 329. March—Advice to Normal Schools, 388. National Educational Association, 389. Dependent Children, 390. Separate Schools for Colored Children, 391. Art Education in England, 392. Advice to Parents, 393. Reminiscences of Schools, 393. Work for Normal Schools, 394. Industrial School in Philadelphia, 395. What Germany is Doing for Girls, 395. April—Change of Administration: Department Affairs, 428. Milton Schools, 428. Dr. Higbee, Greeting, 429. President Garfield, 430. University of Pennsylvania, 430. The Good Teacher, 432. Soldiers' Orphan Schools, 432. County Superintendency, 433. State Board of Charities, 434. May—State Associations, Unfounded Rumor, State Treasurer Butler, 464 Election of Superintendents, 465. Text-Book Bill, 464. School Savings Banks, 469. New System of Apprenticeship, 469. Individual Repression in Schools, 470. June—State and National Associations—The Children's Land—Philadelphia Tries an Experiment—Teachers' Meetings in France—Election of Superintendents—War on the Normal Schools—Joseph Wharton's Gift—School Directors Slandered, 501.

Educated Skilled Labor: Necessity of the Times, 309.
Education Abroad, 73.
Education and Crime: Influence of the School, 12.
Education in Egypt, 62; in Switzerland, 379.
Education in France: University of France, etc., 373.
Election of County Superintendents, 403.
Elementary Science in Schools—W. L. Balentine, 322.
Examination Questions at Millersville, 76.
Examinations, Use and Abuse—M. H. Richards, 105.
Exterior Planets—A. S. Hershey, 266.
Extracts and Selections, 11, 56, 157, 198, 370, 411.
Eyes! Eyes! Eyes! "Eyes Were Made to See," 161.
Farm Schools for Girls: A French Institution, 367.
Food for Thought—A. D. Mayo, 177.
Formation of Character in the Public Schools, 64.
Garfield, the Teacher: Work at Hiram Institute, 232.
General Directions in Methods: Illinois Course, 365.
German Common School—John M. Gregory, 277.
Grave National Interest—R. B. Hayes, 166.
Governor Wm. Bigler: The School Law of 1854, 254.
Governor Hoyt on General Education, 313.
Governor Wolf, Messages of 1833 and 1834, 445.
Harvard Lectures on Pedagogy: Kindergarten—Religious Training—Language and its Methods, 449.
Heating and Ventilation of School Houses, 364.
High School Cabinet, and How to Use It, 59.
His Word his Bond, 462.
His Field of Influence, 459.
Hobby Riding—W. L. Balentine, 409.
How to Keep Well—Henry Ward Beecher, 423.
How to Succeed, 327.
If I Were a Boy Again—J. T. Fields, 415.
Inaugural Addresses, 424.
Indian Education; Solving the Vexed Problem, 209.
Individual Repression in the Schools, 470.
Industrial Drawing, W. S. Goodnough, 5, 487.
Indian Names in Pennsylvania, 289.
Industrial Education Beyond the Atlantic, 3.
Industrial Education in our Common Schools—Elizabeth Lloyd, 275.
Instruction in Morals—Thos. J. Chapman, 317.
Interior Planets—A. A. Hubley, 263.
John Amos Comenius: Extracts from Writings, 362.
Kindergartens with Normal Schools, 328.
Kindergarten, Light from the, 34.
Late State School Administration and Colleges, 479.

Little Folks: Free Kindergarten in Philadelphia, 195.
Light and Eclipses—Mary Martin, 345.
"Master, Forever"—John B. Gough, 494.
"Memory Gems"—Elihu Burritt, 399.
Memorial Addresses: Prof. Fordyce A. Allen—John H. French, 135; Prof. J. W. Shoemaker—Geo. P. Beard, 138.
Meteor Watching—Isaac Sharpless, 486.
Miscellany, 42, 189, 224, 253, 340, 398, 443, 474, 515.
Moon, The—Wm. F. Duncan, 260.
Moral Culture the Basis of Education, 153.
Moral Training; Responsibility upon us, 97.
Music in Schools, Philosophy and Results of, 63.
Music, Random Notes on, 68, 377, 425, 459.
MUSIC PAGES.—Music on the Waves, 44; Oft in the Stilly Night, 86; Evening Hymn—"Ave Sanctissima," 144; Mountain Maid's Invitation, 190; The Wander-Staff, and Cherries Ripe, 226; The Golden Rule, Jerusalem, My Happy Home, 274; Bonnie Doon, 312; Mill May, 358; The Bird Song, 402; Life Let Us Cherish, 444; Try, Try Again, and Little Things, 478; Good-Night and Good Cheer, 516.
NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION: Meeting at Chautauqua—Object Lessons in Moral Instruction—Technical Training—Normal Departments in Universities—Superintendency—"Methods"—Course of Study, etc., 145.
Nature and Extent of Teacher's Responsibility, 111.
Nebular Hypothesis—Frank Griest, 271.
Need of Higher Education, 75.
Newspaper in School, 295, 326.
New System of Apprenticeship, 469.
Normal School Certificates and Diplomas, 40.
Normal School Examinations, 173, 215, 246.
Normal Schools; Extracts from Reports, 229.
Notes and Personals, 189, 224, 253, 340, 398, 474.
OBITUARY NOTICES.—J. W. Shoemaker, 79; S. S. Haldeman, 184; Daniel S. Burns, 223; Ella E. Eldred, 436.
Objections to Public Schools, 329.
Objects of School Education—T. K. Brown, 492.
OFFICIAL DEPARTMENT.—Unpaid Appropriations to Schools: Letter to State Treasurer—Normal Certificates and Diplomas—Permanent Certificates, 39. All Outstanding School Warrants to be Paid in August - Principal of Normal School—Permanent Certificates Granted, 85; State Appropriation for 1880, Important Decision, Permanent Certificates, To School Directors, Professional Instruction in Normal Schools, Work for Superintendents, Institutes, etc., 185; Opinion of State Superintendent in the Matter of Separate Schools for Colored Children, Examination of Schools, etc., 251; Report of State Superintendent—General Condition of System—Delay in Payment of Appropriation—Popular Interest in Public Education—Weak Places in the System—Education and Crime—Children Not in School—Neglected Children—Normal Schools and Their Statistics—Superintendency—Recommendations in Superintendents' Reports—Legislation Most Needed, 296; Soldiers' Orphan Schools; Annual Report of the Superintendent for 1880: Schools in Operation—Cost of System—Where Children Come From—Testimony Required—Comprehensive Summary, etc., Permanent Certificates granted, 334. District Accounts, Cities and Boroughs entitled to Superintendents: Census of 1880, Employment of Teachers, 396; Election of Superintendents, The Change in the Superintendency, Personal, Bills now Pending, Permanent Certificates, 436; Annual Examinations at the State Normal Schools, Permanent Certificates, 473; List of County, City and Borough Superintendents Elected, 514.
Our Common Schools, C. F. Adams, Jr., 233.
Our Industrial Exhibition—Elizabeth Lloyd, 408.
OVER THE SEA.—Editorial Correspondence: Munich, 35; Salzburg and Vienna, 81; Prague, Dresden, Leipsic, and Wittenberg, 180; Berlin and Potsdam, 218; Holland, 248; Paris, 329; In and About Paris, 470; More of Paris, 511.
Palestine Arabs: Certain Scriptural References, 319.
Permanent Certificates Granted, 41, 85, 339, 442.
Planets: How Recognized—G. M. Philips, 406.
Planting Trees Before the School-house, 168.
Plea for Industrial Education, 421.
Poet-Pedagogue: Goldsmith—T. J. Chapman, 482.
Practical Work of School-Room, W. L. Balentine, 53.
Primary Reading: How to Use the Word Method, 457.
Primary Work, 410, 499.
Principles of Teaching—J. MacVicar, 205.
Proposed Industrial School, 461.
Public Instruction in Saxony: Suggestive Facts for Pennsylvania, 45.
Questions on Teaching: Training Colleges of Edinburgh, 454.
Reading, Primary, 417.
Reminiscences of Schools, 393.
School Decoration: How to Secure Attendance, 193.
School Hygiene: Ventilation, Eyesight, etc., 162.
School Savings Banks, 469.
Science at Institutes, 215.
Scientific Notes, 224, 254, 342, 399, 443, 474.
Self-Help—T. J. Chapman, 192.
Shops at Eton College: Industrial Training, 200.
Side Studies in the School-Room—C. F. Kingman, 8.
"Society Where It Begins," 494.
Soldier's Orphan Schools, 334.
Something of the Seed—J. P. McCaskey, 49.
Some Things I Know About Teachers, 17.
Sound Waves, etc., 462.
Spelling Reform, Notes on—W. G. Waring, 8.
STAR CLUB PAPERS.—The Sun, The Moon, Interior Planets, Exterior Planets, Comets and Meteors, Nebular Hypothesis, 256; The Zodiac, Light and Eclipses, and Star Groups, with List of One Hundred and Twenty-five Stars, 343.
Star Study: Presenting the Subject—J. D. Pyott, 119.
Star Study: Lancaster Star Club, 20, 281.
STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—Proceedings of Twenty-sixth Annual Session, 87; Meeting of State Association at York—Editorial, 87; Address of Welcome: Teachers' Work, Schools of York—John Gibson, 89; Inaugural Address: A Retrospect and Some Cautions—B. F. Shaub, 92; Moral Training: Responsibility not to be Evaded—Jennie V. Johnston, 97; Teachers' Studies and Degrees—E. O. Lyte, 101; Use and Abuse of Examinations M. H Richards, 105; Nature and Extent of Teacher's Responsibility—J. W. Danenhower, 111; Women vs. Men as Teachers—J. S. Stahr, 114; Star Study: Practical Methods of Presenting the Subject—J. D. Pyott, 119; Æsthetics in the School-Room—Mayne B. Archer, 122; Merits and Defects of Our County Institutes—S. H. Prather, 129; Memorial Address: Prof. Fordyce A. Allen—John H. French, 135; Memorial Address: Prof. J. W. Shoemaker—Geo. P. Beard, 138. Discussions—Industrial Training, 95; Moral Training, 98; Spelling Reform, 100; Examinations of Teachers and of Normal School Graduates, 108; Teacher's Responsibility, 113; Women vs. Men as Teachers, 118; The Comic vs. Vulgarity, 124; Natural Science in School, 126, 128; County Institutes, 133. Members in Attendance, 142.
Sun, The—J. D. Pyott, 256.
Superintendent of Public Instruction: Report, 296.
Swiss Teachers' Association, 30.
Tact in the School-Room Essential to Success, 458.
Taking Off the Shoes: Arabian Schools, 419.
Tardiness and the Remedy: Morning Exercises, 197.
Tastes of the Multitude: "Survival of Fittest," 413.
Teachers' Institutes in France, 247.
Teacher's Studies and Degrees—E. O. Lyte, 101.
Teaching Geography, 382.
Teaching Spelling, 14.
Temperance in Maine: For Thirty Years, 165.
The Big Boots: Reminiscences of School Life, 66.
The Good Teacher, 432.
The New Schoolma'am: Story for Teachers, 203.
The Soul of the School: Enthusiastic Teacher, 231.
Three Good Lessons, 14.
Tom Brown at Rugby; Influence of the Story, 191.
Tom Brown at Rugby—George P. Hays, 279.
Trees Around School-House: Unattractive Yards, 276.
Ungraded Schools, 33.
United States and Canada, 23.
University of Pennsylvania, 430.
Ventilation and Hygiene: Practical Suggestions, 451.
Warning to Normal Schools, 214.
What Germany is Doing for Girls, 395.
What Shall we Learn? Objects of Education, 47.
Woman's Educational Rights in Olden Times, 15.
Women vs. Men as Teachers—J. S. Stahr, 114.
Written Language, 23.
"Ye Anciente Towne of Yorke"—L. E. Patridge, 155.
Zodiac, The—Marie A. Kemp, 343.